

DAILY PLANET

ALL THE NEWS THAT FITS

Wednesday, July 30

1997

NASA Offers Employees Incentive For Early Retirement, Separation

Center employees were advised in a letter Monday that Marshall has been authorized to offer retirement or separation incentives of up to $25,000 for 200 employees during the period Aug. 1, 1997 through Feb. 3, 1998. The deadline for submission of applications is Nov. 14, 1997. If a separation date prior to Nov. 14 is requested, the deadline is two weeks before the desired date. Should more than 200 employees apply for the buyout, approval will be based on Federal service computation date. Question-and-answer sessions and group counseling opportunities will be held Aug. 6 and 7 in Morris Auditorium.

Rep. Bud Cramer to Speak at Washington Update Luncheon

U.S. Representative Bud Cramer will speak at a Washington Update Luncheon at noon on Friday, Aug. 8, at the Von Braun Center North Hall. The luncheon is sponsored by the Huntsville/Madison County Chamber of Commerce. The cost is $20 for individual tickets or $160 for a table of eight. The deadline for reservations is July 31.

Contact: Mary Rutledge, 4-5252.

MMA Announces College Scholarship Award Recipients

The Marshall Management Association recently awarded four $1,500 college scholarships to children of Marshall employees. Recipients are Neelaksh K. Varshney, child of Shashi Varshney; Stephanie A. Nemecek, child of Larry Nemecek; Mindy J. Hicks, child of William A. Hicks, and James A. Wiser, child of James N. Wiser.